

2238 County Road A

$850,000

Right out of History! Secluded approach opens to this timeless, elegant, artistic and romantic combination of modern & antique. The main residence consists of dismantled and then re-mantled over 3 years, a Cornish miners cottage (1830ish), 2 story Norwegian family home (1870ish), house/barn (1860ish) & a central standard construction portion to strategically combine the 3 structures in 1990 on full concrete basement & a new sun/pub room addition. The Cabin Life rental is hand hewn notched doveled & spiked pine logs. Back Again Cabin rental is log and stone. Wooded grounds, gardens.
