GARVER FEED MILL | MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Former sugar factory is ready to hit its stride

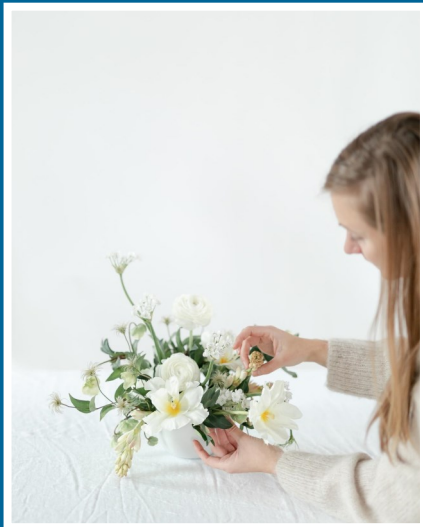

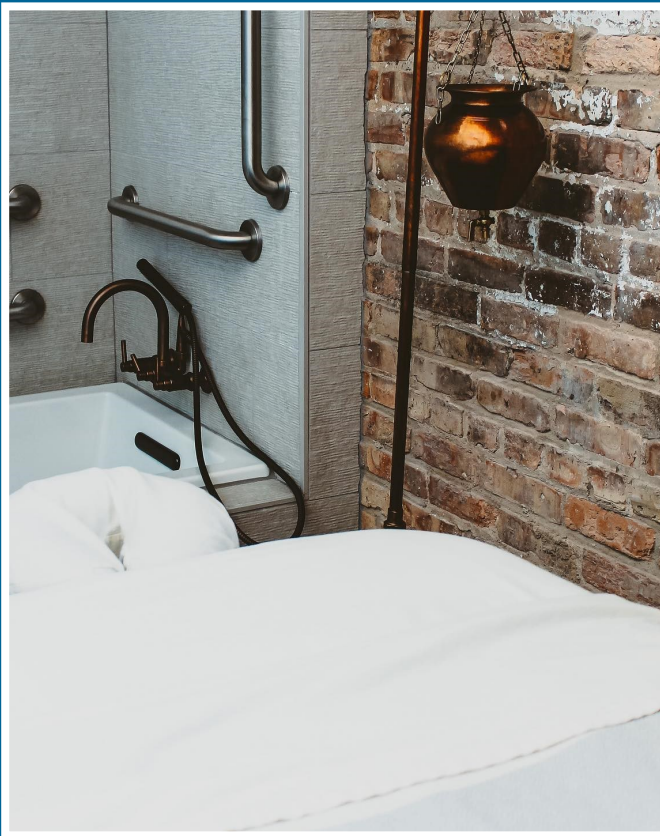

Nearly full, historic site's tenants ready for pandemic to end

The nearly $20 million restoration was only the first step.

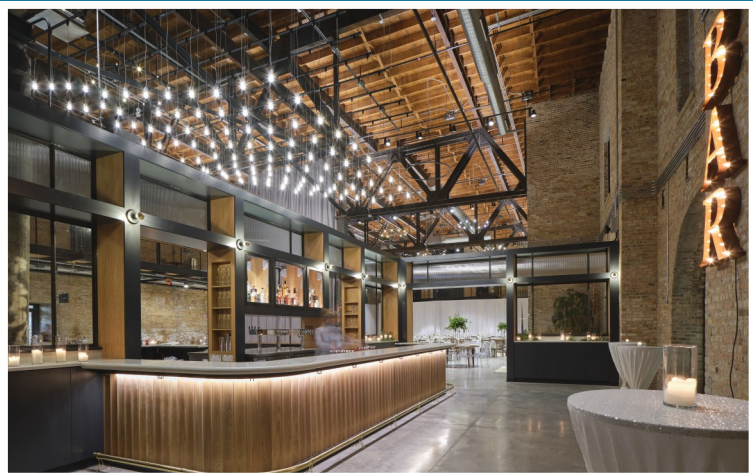

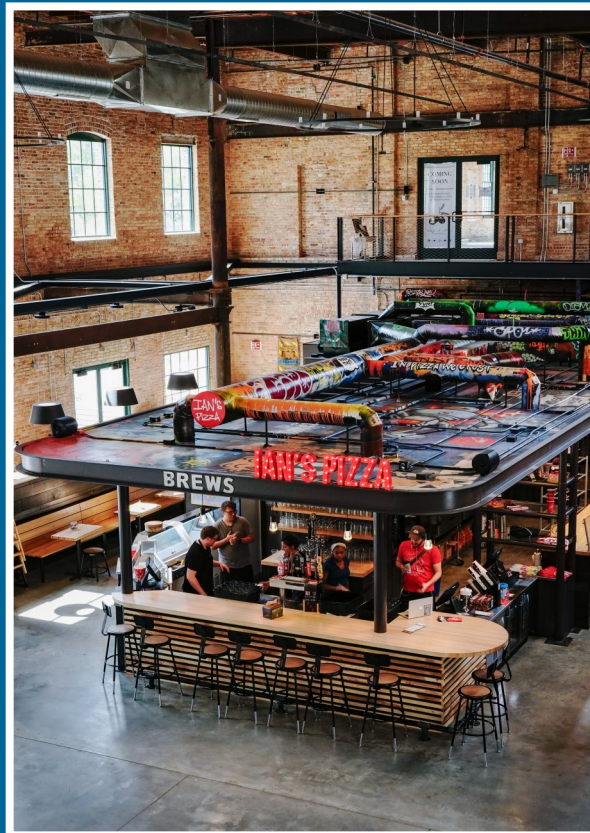

out of the pandemic in solidifying us as a place for the arts and community programming," said Bethany Jurewicz, Garver Events' director of public programming and business operations. "I'm pleased that so many of (the businesses at Garver) have survived the last two years. I think without the pandemic
