About the Area

Metro Madison

Madison is the state capital of Wisconsin with a metro population of about 681,000, making it the second largest city in the state. Madison is a medical and technology hub, home to companies such as Epic Systems, Google, Microsoft, Alliant Energy and more. The city consistently ranks near the top of best-places lists with its vibrant economy and low unemployment.

Madison is also home to the University of Wisconsin—Madison, the state's flagship university. The University of Wisconsin - Madison's main campus neighbors the Capitol building with its 50,000 student body. Within the campus sits Camp Randall Stadium, home to UW's football team. With a seating capacity of 80,321, Camp Randall ranks among the nation's largest school-owned stadiums.

In recent years, Madison has boasted the highest number of PhDs per capita and third highest college graduates per capita, according to Forbes magazine, enhancing the already plentiful labor pool.

The city is able to attract top-notch talent through a true live, work, play mantra. Downtown Madison is centered around the State Capitol building with the surrounding neighborhood home to upscale retailers, corporate offices, luxury apartments and condos, and some of the finest dining options in the state.

Madison Workforce

The University of Wisconsin - Madison & Four Strong Technical Schools Help Fuel a Strong Workforce

The well educated workforce, fueled by nationally ranked UW-Madison, tends to pursue economic stability through careers in business, technology and professional services. The Madison metro area has seen continued steady growth in these sectors thanks to notable names like Epic Systems, UW Healthcare and American Family Insurance. The combination of the strong education system and stable nationally recognized corporations encourages the young workforce to stay in the Madison area, a trend that will likely draw additional employers and lead to further growth.

Non-Residential Customers

Wisconsin law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective customers.

Prior to negotiating on your behalf the Brokerage firm, or an agent associated with the firm, must provide you the following disclosure statement:

Broker Disclosure to Customers

You are a customer of the broker. The broker is either an agent of another party in the transaction or a subagent of another broker who is the agent of another party in the transaction. The broker, or a salesperson acting on behalf of the broker, may provide brokerage services to you, the broker owes you, the customer, the following duties:

- The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.
- The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.
- The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions with a reasonable time if you request it, unless prohibited by law.
- The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the broker will not disclose your confidential information or the confidential information to other parties.
- The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property the broker holds.
- The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

Please review this information carefully. A broker or salesperson can answer your questions about brokerage services, but if you need legal advice, tax advice or a professional home inspection contact an attorney, tax advisor, or home inspector. This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for information only. It is a plain-language summary of a broker's duties to a customer under section 452.133 (1) of the Wisconsin statutes.

Confidentiality Notice to Customers

Broker will keep confidential any information given to broker in confidence, or any information obtained by broker that he or she knows a reasonable person would want to be kept confidential. Unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize the broker to disclose particular information. A broker shall continue to keep the information confidential after broker is no longer providing brokerage services to you.

The following information is required to be disclosed by law:

1. Material adverse facts, as defined in section 452.01 (5g) of the Wisconsin Statutes.
 2. Any facts known by the broker that contradict any information included in a written inspection report on the property or real estate that is the subject of the transaction.
- To ensure that the broker is aware of what specific information you consider confidential, you may list that information below. At a later time, you may also provide the broker with other information you consider to be confidential.
