Property Overview

The Old Feed Mill offers a rare opportunity to acquire a fully renovated, historic restaurant and event venue in downtown Mazomanie. The approximately 16,000-square-foot property features original brickwork, exposed wood beams, multiple dining and event spaces, outdoor seating, a commercial kitchen, an elevator, a sprinkler system, and parking for more than 40 vehicles. The underutilized second floor offers significant value-add potential, including possible conversion to apartments, subject to zoning and municipal approvals. The building sale includes the commercial kitchen hood, Ansul system, and walk-in coolers.

Location Overview

Located in the heart of Mazomanie, The Old Feed Mill is positioned just two blocks from U.S. Highway 14, providing convenient access to Middleton, Madison, and communities throughout western Dane County. The property is approximately 20 minutes west of Middleton and serves as a well-established destination for local residents, regional visitors, weddings, and special events. Its historic setting near downtown Mazomanie and the Driftless Area enhances the property's appeal as a distinctive restaurant and hospitality destination.
